No. 8 :
3 August 2020

A very different addition to school uniform at this morning's secondary assembly

The Principal will email parents with the latest COVID-19 restrictions and how they will alter schooling when further details are provided, probably tomorrow.

Tuesday and Wednesday are STUDENT FREE DAYS while staff prepare for a return to remote learning, which is scheduled to commence from home on Thursday of this week.

Our Prep students welcomed a new member of class last week - Reuben Nuske.

We hope you and your family enjoy being part of Murrayville Community College, Reuben.

WELL DONE

Buddies

The P/1 and 5/6 students enjoyed an afternoon together at the start of this term having some 'Buddy Time'. Students loved participating in a variety of activities together that helped build on their communication skills and respectful relationship learning, as well as continue to build upon their friendships across the primary.
